is curved from almost all angles. The only planar façade it is localized at South forming a close street with the existing building (Kulturmagazinet). A small bridge links these two buildings. Regarding the memory of Viking boats, its soft and organic shapes and the colour of the material it permits to create dynamic visual effects.

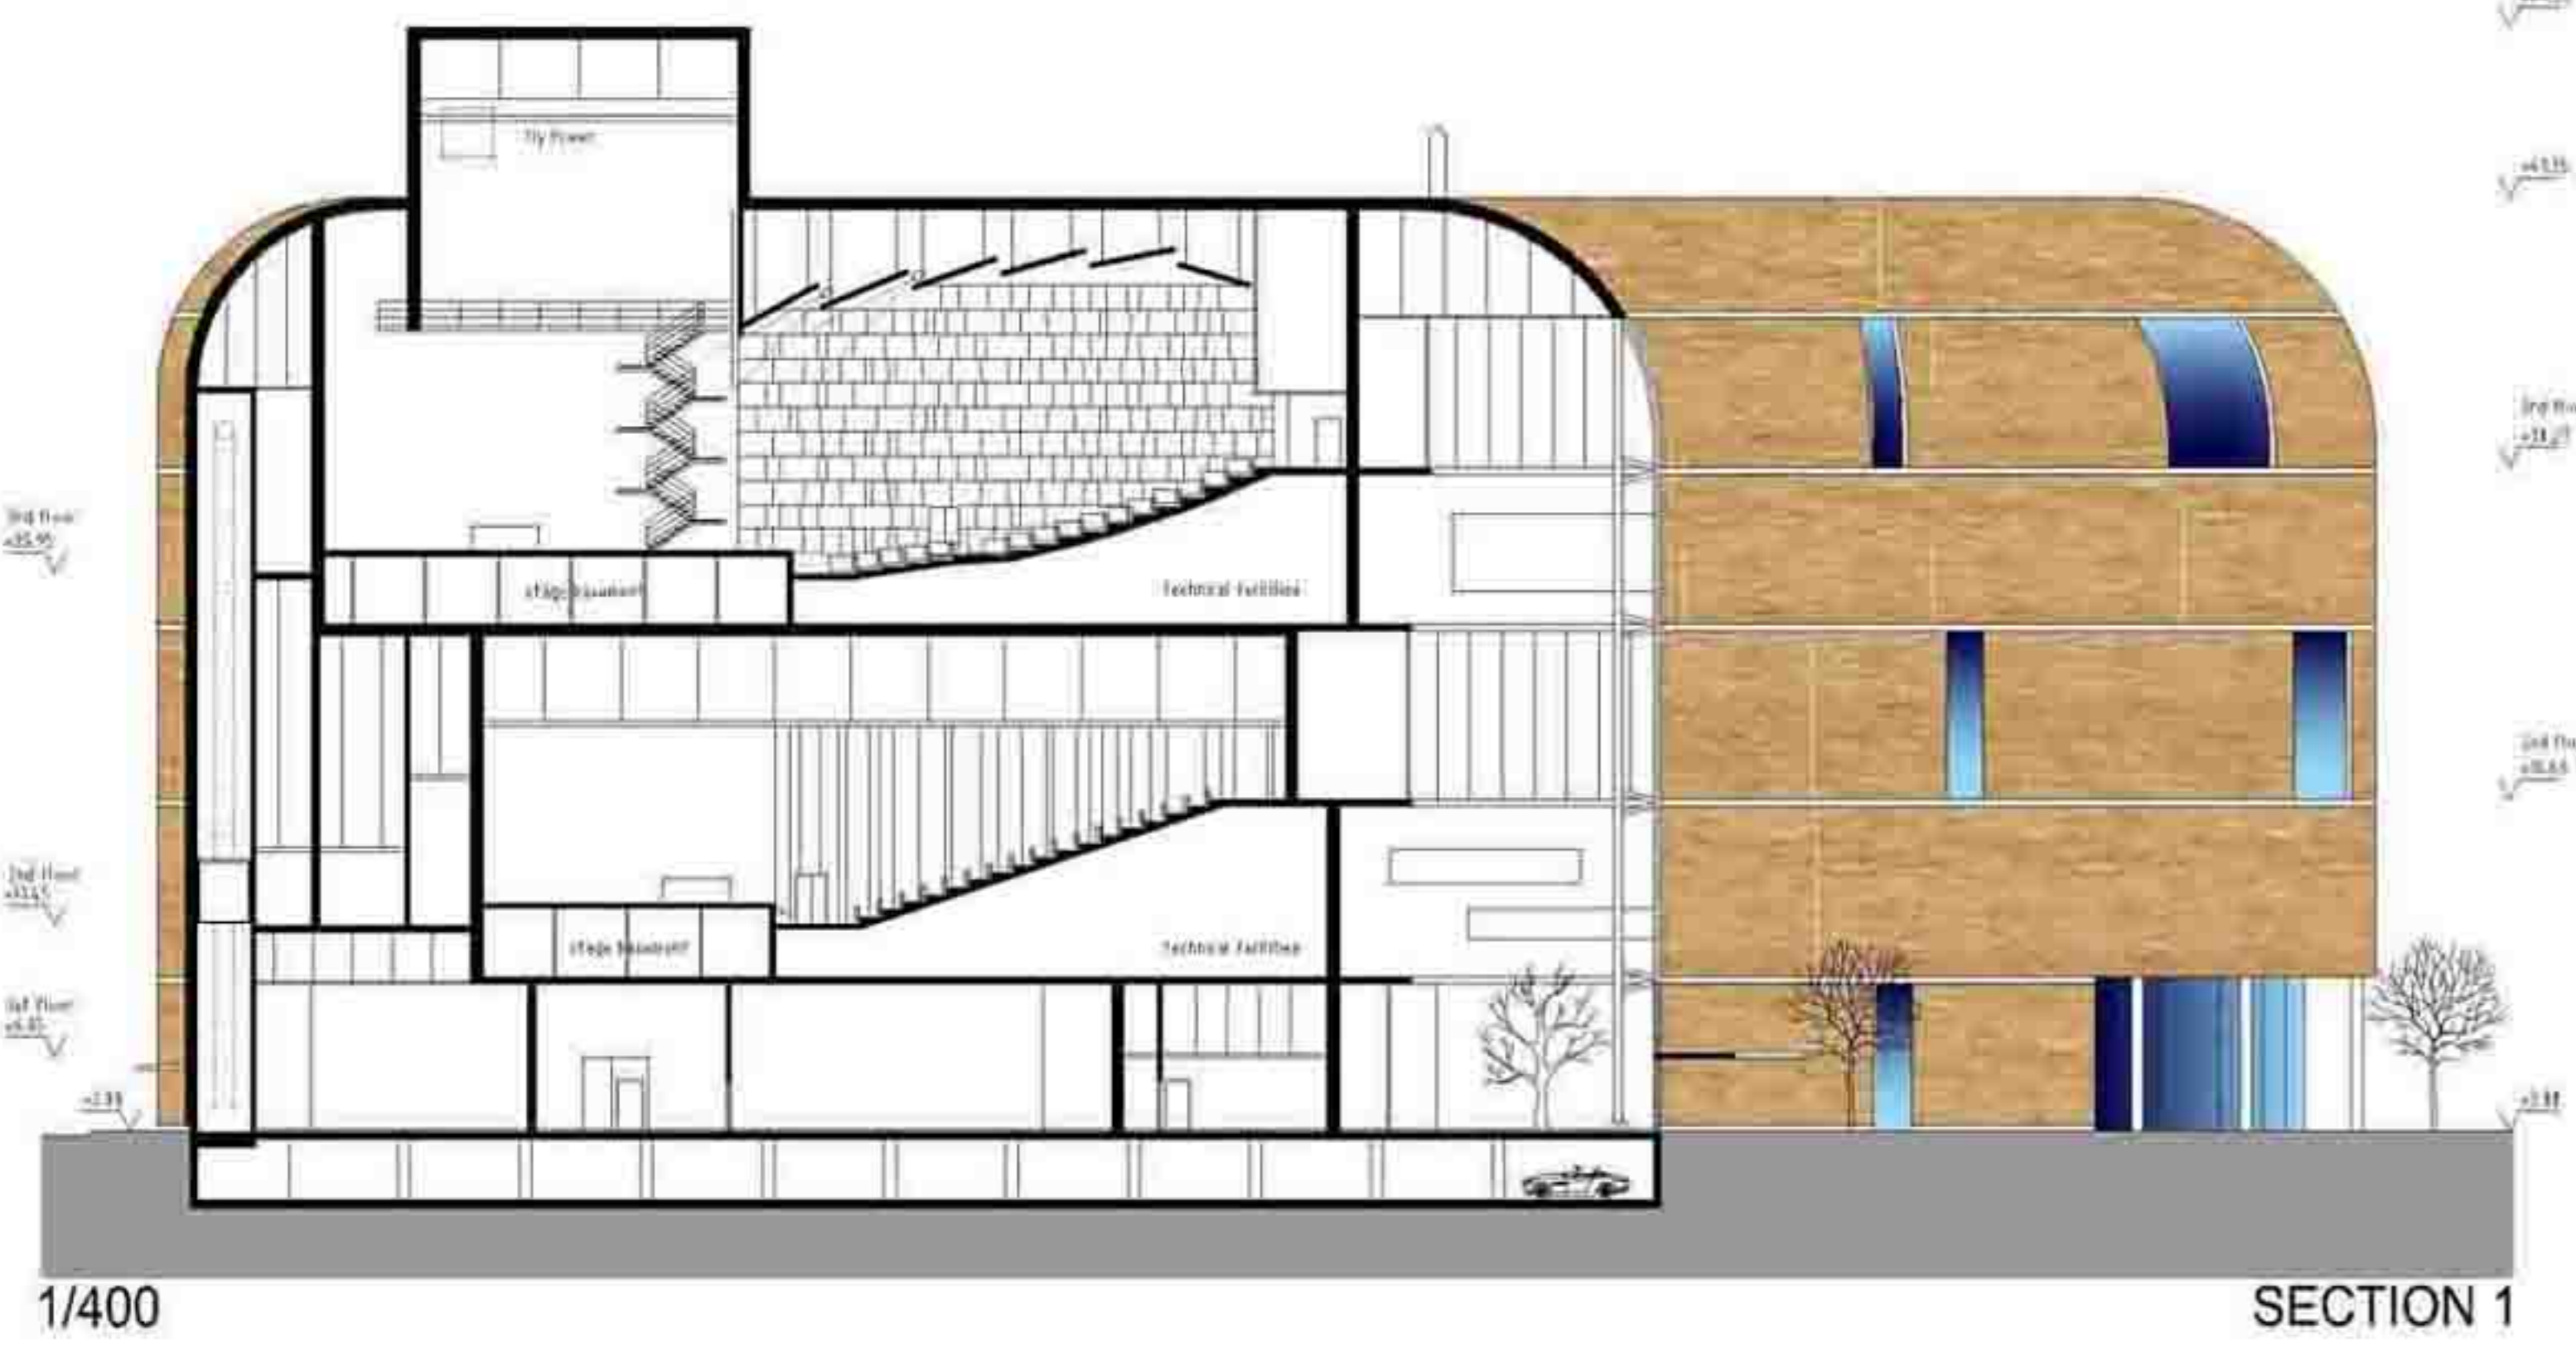

which facade can be lightened at night creating from this way a good environment for the city.

The urban solution is to convert the street between the two buildings into pedestrian traffic with restricted vehicle access.
